AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 452 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 1.1in. The United States was just beginning to emerge from the Great Depression of 1930s when war began to rage in Europe. The United States at this time was not an active participant in the war. However, the U. S. was shipping war materials to England and Russia to aid their effort. The draft to conscript for the service had been initiated in order to develop a state of readiness in the event...
