Only employers under the compensation act are required to report compensable accidents or those requiring medical aid; compensable accidents to be reported within 2 weeks; others on 10th day of month. Only employers under the compensation act are required to report accidents causing disability or requiring medical aid within 5 days. Only employers under the compensation act are required to report all accidents causing disability or requiring medical aid. Fatal accidents required to be reported by wire. PROVISIONS AS TO INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENT REPORTING IN THE VARIOUS STATES, AND IN THE PROVINCES OF CANADA--Concluded. UNITES STATES--Concluded. In all tabulations of industrial accident statistics the most important factor is the classification of industries, because all other items relate to it. For example, the number of accidents of a certain nature, such as the loss of an arm, must be assigned to the industries in which such accidents occur, and similarly the number of accidents attributable to a specific cause, such as the lack of a proper safeguard, must be distributed by industries. Uniformity in the classification of industries is therefore of first importance and is absolutely essential if the data prepared by the various States are to be comparable. At the present time workmens compensation insurance rates are provided by the insurance companies for some 1, 500 different classifications. For the various industrial accident boards and commissions to keep and publish their accident data in the detail indicated by so many...
