They present to us, first, the aged Samuel calling the people to bear witness to his integrity in their service; and, secondly, the Apostle Paul s comparison of the souls of the dead to the stars of heaven, so differing in glory. It was announced, at the close of our service last Sunday evening, that Edward Everett, a venerable judge in our Israel, was no more on earth, but a star on high, and that our tribute would be paid to his memory at this time. The announcement of his death startled many of you. because unexpected, and Ave were all of one mind as to the fitness of this tribute of honor and affection. The loss comes home to us all as a public bereavement: and in all sympathy, without any disguise or affectation, we can honestly say that we have lost a friend and benefactor.
