Throughout the applicants training, the instructor is responsible for emphasizing the performance of, and the ability to teach, effective visual scanning and collision avoidance procedures. These areas are covered in AC 90-48, Pilots Role in Collision Avoidance; AC 61-21, Flight Training Handbook; AC 61-23, Pilots Handbook of Aeronautical Knowledge; and the Aeronautical Information Manual. Instrument Privileges - Airship 14 CFR part 61, section 61. 5, states that no person may act as pilot in command of a civil aircraft under instrument flight rules, or in weather conditions less than the minimums prescribed for VFR flight unless, in the case of an airship, they hold a commercial pilot certificate with lighter-than-air category and airship class ratings. In order to allow an efficient and economical practical test for commercial pilot certification in an airship, the following considerations have been made regarding evaluation of instrument TASKS. 1. If the applicant already holds an instrument rating, instrument TASKS need not be evaluated during the practical test. However, the examiner shall verify the applicants training records to determine that all...
