Lesson 1: The Man Who Desired Much Gold Bansir appears as a hard working, conscientious artisan; not quick-witted or brilliant, but persevering and capable of good thinking if need be. Using the few remarks he makes about himself as a brief picture of his character, we will, in the questions which follow, bring to the surface those things within himself which were retarding his success. There are many Bansirs in our world today who could and should be doing much better without working one bit harder. The Richest Man In Babylon Tells His System This lesson deals with the first basic principle of acquiring money: the right of all individuals to keep for themselves a portion of all they earn.
