The boys all took up the shout and made the welkin ring with cheer after cheer. Well. Isaac, does it meet your expectations? asked Duncan as soon as he could be heard. Yes, and more too, Isaac replied, his face beaming with gratification; she runs faster than I expected. There s a big power in them falls. Yes. I think there is. I suppose I could attach a little triphammer to your wheel, if desired; at all events, I have decided to locate my shop at this place, so we shall be near neighbors. Aren t we advancing in civilization, though! cried Will. Just think--a blacksmith shop and sawmill! We shall have all the elegancies of a refined and cultured state, yet! Quite right, Staples! said Frank. The refining influence of a sawmill is something astonishing. I was brought up in the neighborhood of one myself, -- And the rhythmic flow of its measured strain Has left an impress on my youthful brain. That no lapse of time in the world s wild race. No battle of life, can ever efface. Ah, Burton, that is really delightful. drawled Ransom. I am so gratified to hear you give expression to your pent-up feelings in such lofty sentiments! But your poetic soul needs a wider vent. Prepare a poem celebrating this auspicious event, and...
