No one realizes as well as I do, how much has been left unsaid, but I hope that what little has been said will give you enough insight to arouse your interest and sympathy and keep it such that no backward step will be allowed, but that Illinois may advance along this line, so that other states will have to come to us for another Illinois Plan. Dr. Arthur D. Black, Chicago: I did not expect to be called upon to discuss this address, and am not prepared to do so. However, I will speak briefly on one or two points in which I am particularly...
