Excerpt from The Birth of Freedom and the Present Age Mrs. Robert Caldwell: We has been a long time anxious to get our freedom - de precious incouragement in de discipline of life - and it comes in time of our weakness and in time of our need. We am free tonight from de cruel slavery days, an it lays right on our own minds to do wid our might what dy hands findeth to do which may do something for de comfort to see better days. And God grant us de blessings to be ready to answer de call - let it be noon or night. (Rises with broom in hand with about three straws in it, and picks up some rags and throws them over in the corner.) And this is the first night of our freedom. I wish some of dem girls and boys would come around. I will just clean up a little - just a few pick-ups. Mr. Robert Caldwell: I wonder whar all de folks am tonight; things am looking mighty...
